

Mark Wheeler – Plays for Senior Students

Mark Wheeler is one of the UK's leading playwrights. His remarkable "reality" plays for teenagers are challenging, engaging & thought provoking. The suitability and integrity of Mark's scripts is why they are some of the most popular contemporary plays performed by teens and drama students.

(The drama DVD – Wheeler Plays Exemplified contains filmed scenes from his many plays, plus interviews with the playwright - a fantastic classroom resource).

Too Much Punch For Judy with its strong drink-driving message, is one of the top three plays being studied in the UK and has been performed more than 5,000 times.

Missing Dan Nolan explores the mystery of Dan's disappearance and the tragic events that occurred that night; raising issues concerning personal safety and the importance of looking out for your mates. It is also in use as an exemplar script.

Hard to Swallow uses simple narrative and a series of stylised visual tableaux to build a powerful and sometimes harrowing chronicle of Catherine's long and ultimately unsuccessful fight against anorexia nervosa.

Kill Jill Big Brother meets Kill Bill meets Jack (of Beanstalk fame) meets Tony Martin...mix these together to create a script that explores the issues of homeowners defending themselves, asking "How far can Reality TV be allowed to go?"

Graham - World's Fastest Blind Runner has been selected as an exemplar text for drama teachers. This much used study text and brilliant performance script is for teachers seeking something different and written specifically for senior students. Also available is the professionally produced DVD of a performance, in itself a drama resource for teachers.

All are suitable for intermediate and senior drama students for both performance and examination
