Synopsis

Set in Ireland and based on some of the exploits of Grace O'Malley, the original Pirate Queen, our sparkling new musical is a rollicking blending of script and music. With a feisty female in the lead role, this pirate musical will rock the audience, as she leads her motley crew on a swashbuckling adventure. A tongue-in-cheek glimpse of piracy on and off the high seas, with Pirates galore, whimsical leprechauns, plots and sub-plots and Queen Elizabeth 1 as a wily, worthy adversary. There is ample Chorus work, a range of exciting modern-sounding 'piratey' music from a new composer and, for the adventurous, the added opportunity for film and television students to show their talents. A liberal helping of comedy, a couple of sword fights, a wide assortment of colourful characters and contrasting locations give this show variety and appeal.
